sure foundations. The budget I have placed before you has sight of this new democracy which is broad based on adult suffrage. I may claim that it has been drawn on a bold plan, for it is no virtue for a people newly liberated to be too conservative. These are days of electricity and we must all work with speed and work hard and work together. I appeal for that co-operative effort which alone can lead us to success. And I trust I will not have appealed in vain.

Before I conclude may I acknowledge my deep obligation to the Financial Secretary and his Assistants who had a most unusually difficult task this time in reconciling figures under new heads and this has also necessitated a more elaborate explanatory memorandum. When you see the estimates I am sure you will appreciate their assistance and work as well as I do. JAI HIND.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The House will adjourn for lunch for half an hour.

The Assembly adjourned for lunch at Forty Minutes past Three of the Clock and reassembled at Ten Minutes past Four of the Clock, Mr. Speaker (The Hon'ble Sri V. Venkatappa) in the Chair.

Laying Schedule of Supplementary and Additional Grants for 1950-51.

Mr. SPEAKER (The Hon'ble Sri V. Venkatappa).—The Hon'ble Minister of Finance will now lay before the House the Statement of Supplementary and Additional Grants for 1950-51.

The Hon'ble Sri H. C. DASAPPA (Minister for Finance and Industries).—Sir, I beg to lay before the House a Statement of Supplementary and Additional Estimates and Schedule of Demands thereof, copies of which have already been distributed to the members.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The Demands will be taken up on Saturday, the 24th March 1951. Hon'ble Members who desire to give notice of cut motions may do so by tomorrow evening.

LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS.

Mr. SPEAKER (The Hon'ble Sri V. Venkatappa).—Now Legislative Busi- will be taken up. The Hon'ble Chief Minister may now move the Mysore University (Amendment) Bill.

The Mysore University (Amendment) Bill, 1951.

Motion to consider.

The Hon'ble Sri K. CHENGALARAYA REDDY (Chief Minister).—Sir, I beg to move:

"That the Mysore University (Amendment) Bill, 1951, be taken into consideration."

This is a very simple Bill. The objects in introducing this Bill are two-fold. Firstly, it is proposed to reorganise the University under a new enactment and naturally it will take some time before the Bill that is to be sponsored
